Part II, Page 2, Item 1.D.	Raymond J. Lucia Companies, Inc., also conducting business under the name RJL Wealth Management (hereinafter referred to as “Advisor”) offers personalized investment advisory services including financial planning and consulting, asset management, referrals to third-party money managers, and seminars. Advisor provides financial planning services by offering analyses and recommendations in areas including, but not limited to, business planning, education, retirement planning, life and health insurance, estate planning, tax planning and investments. Clients are asked to complete informational profiles and furnish related documentation to assist Advisor’s associated persons in providing these services. One or more meetings may be required in order to gather all needed information and determine the services best suited to help meet the client’s needs. Clients are also urged to work closely with their attorney, accountant or other professionals regarding their financial and personal situation. Clients have sole discretion on whether or not to contract for Advisor’s services. Further, clients will have full discretion on whether or not to implement any financial planning recommendations made by Advisor’s associated persons. When clients contract for Advisor’s asset management services, Advisor or a third-party money manager recommended by Advisor will typically have discretionary authority to manage the client’s assets. Advisor’s services and fee arrangements are described in more detail on the following pages. Advisor is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of California. This Schedule F narrative provides clients with information regarding Advisor and the qualifications, business practices, and nature of advisory services that should be considered before becoming an advisory client of Advisor. The information in this Schedule F has not been approved or verified by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the State of California, or by any state securities authority. Additional information about Advisor is available through the SEC’s website at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. The CRD number for Advisor is 115670. ADVISORY SERVICES AND FEES A. Financial Planning Services. Typically, all new clients will receive a financial planning review and analysis. Depending on the individual needs of a particular client or if requested by a client, the client will receive a written financial plan. Advisor’s financial planning services are often conducted under the name Buckets of Money®. Buckets of Money® is a proprietary investment strategy developed by Raymond J. Lucia, Advisor’s President. The strategy matches assets to liabilities and applies a three-tiered approach to generate monthly income and protect against inflation. Short-term investments fund a client’s need for current living expenses, while safe mid-term investments provide portfolio stability. Long-term investments provide growth for future financial goals. Advisor provides written financial planning services in a variety of formats, customizing each plan to meet the client’s needs, concerns, goals and objectives. Clients can choose from a simple plan focusing on one specific area of concern or a more complex plan covering multiple areas relating to the client’s financial situation. The following are some, but not necessarily all, of the areas clients can select: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Buckets of Money® allocation designed to provide the client with safe and reliable income along with the potential to achieve maximum investment returns: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Bucket 1 is liquid assets to provide monthly income ● Bucket 2 is short term investments to provide safety between Buckets 1 and 2 and a means of investing funds

Options to help achieve those goals will also be provided. ○ A personalized asset allocation model determined by the client’s risk tolerance. The objective is to match the client’s risk tolerance with proper investments and to achieve the highest possible rate of return through diversification of assets. ○ A compilation and analysis of the client’s current investments to help align assets with goals. Includes a listing of assumptions made to develop a personal plan for the client. Because financial planning services are provided to clients that anticipate establishing an on-going asset management arrangement with Advisor, fees for financial planning services are typically never charged. In the event fees are charged, the maximum charge will not exceed $5,000. Fees are negotiable based upon the complexity of the client’s financial situation, the services contracted for and the knowledge and skill level required of Advisor’s associated person providing the services. Planning fees may be reduced by the amount of additional advisory fees retained by Advisor or waived altogether. All fees will be disclosed to clients prior to any services being provided. If necessary or if requested by the client, Advisor’s associated person will coordinate or consult with outside counsel (i.e., attorney, CPA, accountant) when providing advice. Any consultation or coordination required will also be considered when determining the client fee. Any fees charged by outside counsel will be separate from the fees charged by Advisor’s associated person and will be billed directly to the client by outside counsel. When a fee is charged for financial planning services, such fees are due upon completion and presentation of the plan. However, clients may elect to pay a retainer to Advisor at the time the agreement for services is signed. In this case, the remaining balance will be due upon completion and presentation of the plan. Fees of more than $500 will not be charged more than six months in advance. Either party may terminate the contract at any time by submitting written notice to all appropriate parties, and termination will be effective upon the receipt of such notice. Services will be terminated without penalty. If the client is not satisfied with the financial plan as presented, Advisor’s associated persons will attempt to revise the plan to the client’s satisfaction. If the client is still not satisfied, the client can withhold payment or request a refund of any fees paid in advance. B. Asset Management Services Advisor makes available asset management services through the following platforms that are described in more detail on the following pages. The fee for the portion of the first quarter the account(s) is managed will be calculated on a pro rata basis. In the event that a deposit in excess of $5,000 occurs mid-quarter, the fee will be recalculated at quarter-end and the account will be billed a second fee, in arrears, on the additional deposits.
	The annual management fee covers Advisor and AEAM's advisory services and all trade execution fees charged by First Allied, Pershing and Fidelity. Specifically, the fee will cover all commissions, prime broker fees, and any other transaction fees relating to the execution of securities transactions within client accounts.
	Program services may be canceled at any time, by any of the parties, for any reason upon receipt of written notice to the other party. Services will be terminated without penalty and the client shall receive a pro-rated refund based on the amount of time remaining in the period after the effectiveness of termination.
	This section is intended as a summary of the wrap-fee programs sponsored by RJL. Clients contracting for a wrap-fee program will receive the Raymond J. Lucia Companies, Inc. Wrap Fee Brochure which provides detailed information regarding the various programs.
	RJL Adviser Directed Program
The RJL Adviser Directed Program has been established as an alternative to the RJL Adviser Managed Program. Like the Adviser Managed Program, the Adviser Directed Program provides for investment supervisory services defined as giving continuous investment advice to a client and making investments for the client based on the individual needs of the client. Unlike Adviser Managed Program accounts, transaction fees for Adviser Directed Program accounts are billed separately from the overall management fee charged by Advisor as described in detail below.
Clients contracting for this service must execute a Lucia Asset Management Investment Advisory Agreement prior to the commencement of services.
Through this program, the Advisor's associated person serving as the investment advisor representative assist clients by determining investment objectives and risk tolerance ("Investor Profile"). The advisor representative is responsible for ongoing review of the account, regular communication with the client, portfolio re-balancing as necessary, and attempting to equate the performance of the account with the investment objectives of the client. Account activity is reviewed quarterly by Advisor personnel. Typically, Advisor is provided discretionary trading authorization to effect all changes in client accounts. However, accounts may be established on a non-discretionary basis which requires client consent prior to

Accounts are charged fees and transaction charges that cover investment advisory services, custody of securities and trade execution with or through First Allied Securities, Inc. or Fidelity. Fees paid for Advisor's investment advisory services are separate from fees and expenses charged to shareholders of mutual fund shares by the mutual fund. A complete explanation of these expenses is contained in the mutual fund prospectus. First Allied Securities and Fidelity may receive 12(b)-1 fees for investments in mutual funds. These fees are not shared with Advisor or its associated persons. The standard annual managed fees for RJL Adviser Directed accounts are 2.0% (0.5% quarterly). As fees are negotiable, a client may pay more or less than another client for these services. Clients may receive similar services elsewhere for more or less than through Advisor. The following is a sample fee schedule provided for illustrative purposes. <table style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <thead> <tr> <th style="text-align: left;">Assets Under Management</th> <th style="text-align: right;">Annual Advisory Fee</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>On the amount up to $250,000</td> <td style="text-align: right;">2.00%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>On the next amount from $250,000 to $750,000</td> <td style="text-align: right;">1.85%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>On the next amount from $750,000 to $2,000,000</td> <td style="text-align: right;">1.70%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>On the next amount over $2,000,000</td> <td style="text-align: right;">Negotiable</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> The client's advisor representative will provide the exact percentage based fee to each client based on both the nature and total dollar asset value of that account(s). The fee will be stated in the fee schedule which must be signed by both Advisor and the client. Annual management fees for client accounts are divided, calculated and billed quarterly in advance based on the asset value of the account(s) on the last calendar day of each calendar quarter. The fee will be payable on the business day following the end of the previous calendar quarter. The fee for the portion of the first quarter the account(s) is managed will be calculated on a pro rata basis. First Allied Securities or Fidelity may also receive 12(b)-1 fees for investments in mutual funds. To avoid potential conflicts of interest, First Allied Securities and Fidelity do not share the 12(b)-1 fees with Advisor or its associated persons. Transaction fees are charged to the client by the custodian/broker/dealer to defray the costs associated with trade execution. Each clearing firm may charge additional transaction charges, depending on the type of security, such as a foreign securities transaction fee or securities registration fee; charges by the clearing firm are not included in the Advisor's annual management fee and are the responsibility of the client. Advisor and its associated persons do not receive any portion of the transaction charges. Clients should refer to the transaction fee schedules provided by their custodian/broker-dealer for specific fees and expenses. Clients may pay more or less in transaction fees, depending on the clearing firm where their account is custodied. RJL Adviser Directed Program accounts may be canceled at any time, by any of the parties, for any reason upon receipt of written notice to the other party. Part II, Page 2, Item 1.D. (continued)	Advisor has entered into an agreement with Envestnet Asset Management, Inc. (“Envestnet”), an SEC registered investment advisor, through which Advisor uses Envestnet to provide certain investment advisory services to clients through the Envestnet Managed Account Resource Program (“Program”), a wrap-fee program sponsored by Envestnet. The Program is marketed under the name RJL Wealth Management. The Program provides functions and renders investment advice to Advisor and/or clients, including recommending an appropriate asset allocation for each client and specific investment managers (“Sub-Managers”) or investment products. Upon execution of a Statement of Investment Selection, Advisor assists clients with the establishment of one or more individual accounts at National Financial Services through the Fidelity Institutional Wealth Program (collectively referred to as Fidelity). Fidelity will serve as the qualified custodian for accounts through Program. Clients must appoint Envestnet and the Advisor as their investment advisor on the account. Through Program, Advisor and Envestnet provide each client continuous investment advice based on their needs and circumstances. Advisor and Envestnet will determine the suitability of the asset allocation and investment options for each client. Advisor and Envestnet will then assist clients in allocating their assets among different investment options in the Program and recommend investment vehicles and/or Sub-Managers within that program for their accounts. Clients participating in the Program will grant Advisor and Envestnet discretionary authority with respect to investment and advisory services provided to Program clients. Additionally, each client will grant Envestnet and Advisor full discretionary authority to (i) invest and reinvest the assets in the Program and (ii) retain Sub-Managers with respect to all or a part of the Separate Account Program Assets. These Sub-Managers, in turn, shall be granted full discretionary authority to invest and reinvest the Separate Account Program Assets with respect to which such Sub-Managers have been granted investment discretion, subject to reasonable restrictions requested by the client. Clients participating in the Program are charged a specified fee, or fees not based directly on the transactions in their Accounts, for investment advisory and execution services. Clients in the Program pay a single annualized fee, calculated by applying the annual fee schedule for the pertinent category of Program assets in the Statement of Investment Selection to the asset value of Program assets (determined quarterly on an account by account basis and not in the aggregate). The initial Program fee will equal (on an annualized basis) the percentage set forth in the client fee schedule of the fair market value of each client’s Program assets in the applicable category. The initial Program fee shall be calculated and debited on the day after the initial Program assets are placed in the Program with Fidelity and shall be the Program fee for the first calendar quarter (or part thereof) in which the client participates in the Program. The initial Program fee for any partial calendar quarter shall be appropriately pro-rated based on the number of calendar days in the partial quarter. Thereafter, the Program fee shall be calculated at the beginning of each calendar quarter based on the value of Program assets on the last business day of the prior calendar quarter. However, if an Account is opened in the last month of a calendar quarter, the Program fee will be calculated and debited for the remaining period in the calendar quarter plus the next calendar quarter on the day after initial Program assets are placed into the Program. If a client invests $10,000 or more in any Account after the inception of a calendar quarter, the Program fee for that quarter will be recalculated and pro-rated as of the day of the additional investment. The Program fee for each quarter will equal (on an annualized basis) the percentage set forth in the client agreement’s fee schedule of the fair market value of the Program assets in the applicable category (including interest paid or accrued) as calculated on the last business day of the previous calendar quarter. The account Custodian will determine the fair market value for Program fee calculation

If services are terminated and all Program assets are withdrawn from the Program prior to the end of a quarter, the pro rata portion of the Program fee will be reimbursed to the client. The Program fee will be debited from the client’s Account(s) by Fidelity on a quarterly basis in advance. Clients will authorize Fidelity to pay Envestnet directly from the client’s Account(s) and Envestnet, as agent for the clients, will pay all amounts due to Advisor, Sub-Manager and Fidelity. The maximum fee charged for Accounts that maintain equity stock as Program assets shall not exceed 2.9% annually or 2.65% annually for Accounts that maintain only mutual fund Program assets. The actual fee charged to individual clients will be based on factors such as, but not necessarily limited to, the amount of assets under management and the portfolio(s) used to manage the client’s assets. The specific fee charged to a client will be agreed upon and described in the client agreement prior to commencing services. A separate brokerage account will be established for each portfolio that is selected by a client. As a general rule, the minimum Account size is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). However, under certain circumstances, Advisor may waive the minimum account size requirement and accept accounts less than the minimum requirement. Other costs that may be assessed to a client, and that are not part of the Program fee, include fees for portfolio transactions executed away from Fidelity, IRA and qualified retirement plan charges, dealer mark-ups, electronic fund and wire transfer fees, market maker spreads, exchange fees and broker/dealer fees, among others. Mutual funds, exchange traded funds (“ETFs”), and alternative investments may charge their own fees (such as 12(b)-1 fees and surrender charges) for investing the pool of assets in the respective investment vehicle. Please see the prospectus or related disclosure document for information regarding these fees. For a complete description of the Program, clients should refer to the Envestnet Schedule H Disclosure Brochure. All clients participating in the Program will receive a copy of the Schedule H disclosure brochure prior to, or upon, entering into an agreement for the Program services. Program clients will also be offered a copy of the Schedule H disclosure brochure at least annually. Asset Management Services through the SEI Asset Management Program The SEI Asset Management Program (SEI Program) is an institutional asset allocation program that Advisor uses in managing the client’s account assets. Advisor’s associated persons assist the client in establishing an SEI Program Account (the Account) at SEI Trust Company (SEI). All transactions in the Account will be processed and cleared through SEI. The SEI Program uses asset allocation portfolios developed by SEI Investments. The portfolios consist of the SEI Family of Institutional Mutual Funds (Mutual Funds) and other securities approved by SEI to be held in an account. Advisor’s associated persons provide SEI with the asset allocation policy (Asset Allocation Policy) that the client selects for the Account. The percentage allocation of Account assets among the applicable securities may vary significantly from the percentage allocation contemplated by the client’s Asset Allocation Policy due to such factors as increases or decreases in the value of shares of the securities, dividends, capital gains, or other distributions made in respect of shares of the securities, and deduction of Advisor’s unpaid fees from the account. Custody of all SEI Program Client Account assets is held at SEI. SEI Program management fees (Management Fees) are payable quarterly, in arrears, based on assets under management at the end of the quarter. If services are terminated within five business days of executing the client agreement, services will be terminated without penalty. After the initial five business days, the client may be responsible for payment of fees for the number of days services were provided by Advisor prior to receipt of the notice of termination. The client will compensate Advisor by the payment of Management Fees in the amount of: 1.00% on the first $1,000,000 under management; and .75% on the market value of the Account exceeding $1,000,000. Management Fees may be discounted at the discretion of Advisor and written acknowledgement of the client. Custodian fees and internal mutual fund expenses are separate from the SEI client fees. Complete details on the SEI fees and expenses are disclosed in SEI's Disclosure Brochure that will be given to all clients. The exact fee and/or fee schedule for each client will be disclosed in SEI's client agreement. SEI Trust Company may charge a separate custodial fee for the custody services it provides the client's account. Mutual Funds held in the Account pay their own advisory fees and other expenses, which are explained in each Mutual Fund's prospectus. These fees and expenses are separate charges from the Account management fees. Genworth Financial Wealth Management Platform The Genworth Platform is sponsored by Genworth Financial Wealth Management, Inc., a registered investment adviser. The Genworth Platform has two options. The first is an Asset Allocation System that Advisor may use to manage client assets. It is made up of model portfolios provided by a number of institutional investment strategists. The portfolio designs are based on the information, research, asset allocation methodology and investment strategies of the investment strategists. The second option is a Private Managed Account Program where Advisor introduces clients to investment managers who provide discretionary management of individual portfolios of equity and/or fixed income securities. Genworth Platform client fees are payable quarterly, in advance, based on the average market value of assets under management during the previous quarter. Advisor, Genworth Financial Wealth Management, and the investment strategists who design the portfolios, and others who provide support services for the Genworth Platform may receive a portion of the fee paid by the client. The maximum advisory fee charged to clients will not exceed 2.25% per year. Genworth will retain a portion of this fee for administrative fees. Custodian fees and internal mutual fund expenses are separate from the Genworth Platform advisory fees. The exact fee and/or fee schedule will be disclosed in the Genworth client agreement and fee schedule prior to establishing an Account. Clients may terminate Genworth Accounts at any time and receive a full pro-rata refund of any unearned fees. Advisor may retain up to 1.2% of the total fees charged to client for its role as investment adviser. The minimum investment required in the Genworth Platform is generally $50,000 for Mutual Fund Accounts and $100,000 for ETF and Privately Managed Accounts. Accounts below these minimums may be accepted on an individual basis at the discretion of Advisor and/or Genworth. As a result, Advisor is paid a portion of the fee charged and collected by the third-party investment advisor in the form of solicitor fees or consulting fees. Each solicitation arrangement is performed pursuant to a written solicitation agreement and is in compliance with SEC Rule 206(4)-3 and applicable state securities rules and regulations. Through this service, Advisor assists clients with identifying the client’s risk tolerance and investment objectives. Advisor will recommend third-party investment advisors in relation to client’s stated investment objectives and risk tolerance. A client may select a recommended third-party investment advisor based upon the client’s needs. Clients will enter into an agreement directly with the unaffiliated third-party investment advisor who shall provide asset management services. Advisor shall be available to answer questions the client may have regarding their account and act as the communication conduit between the client and the third-party investment advisors. Third-party investment advisors generally take discretionary authority to determine the securities to be purchased and sold for the client. Neither advisor nor its associated persons will have any trading authority with respect to client’s managed account with the third-party investment advisor(s). Third-party managed programs generally have account minimum requirements that will vary from investment advisor to investment advisor. Account minimums are generally higher on fixed income accounts than equity based accounts. A complete description of the third-party investment advisor’s services, fee schedules and account minimums will be disclosed in the third party investment advisor’s Form ADV, Schedule H Disclosure Brochure, or similar Disclosure Brochure which will be provided to clients at the time an agreement for services is executed and account is established. Client reports will depend upon the third-party investment advisor. While the actual fee charged to a client will vary depending on the third-party investment advisor utilized, the portion retained by Advisor in the form of solicitor fees or consulting fees shall not exceed 1.00%. Under a typical fee schedule for accounts managed by a third party, Advisor shall receive a fee of 1.00% on the first $1,000,000 of assets, a 0.75% fee charged on the next $1,500,000 of assets, and a fee of 0.50% on assets in excess of $2,500,000. All fees are calculated and collected by the selected third-party investment advisor firm who shall be responsible for delivering Advisor’s portion of the client fee to Advisor. Fees are negotiable with clients depending on factors such as, but not limited to, the amount of assets under management and the number client accounts. Clients may incur additional charges including but not limited to, mutual fund sales loads, 12(b)-1 fees and surrender charges, and IRA and qualified retirement plan fees. Advisor will not receive any portion of such commissions or fees. Advisor is only compensated by the consulting fee described above. Clients are advised that there may be other third-party managed programs that may be suitable to the client that may be more or less costly. No guarantees can be made that client's financial goals or objectives will be achieved. Further, no guarantees of performance can be offered. Investments involve risk, including the possible loss of principal. C. Financial Consultation Services Clients may also contract with applicant for specialized on-going consultation services regarding investment matters and portfolio holdings. Fees for this service will generally not exceed $10,000 per year and are negotiable based upon the complexity of the client's financial situation, the actual services provided and extraordinary expenses that may be incurred in providing the services. The negotiated fee will be disclosed to the client prior to any services being provided. Fees will be billed quarterly, in arrears, and applicant will provide to the client a statement that will be due within two weeks after issuance. As registered representatives, Advisor's associated persons may be named as representative of record on brokerage accounts that are included in these on-going consultation services. The associated persons may also be independently licensed insurance agents and be named as agent of record on insurance and annuity products that are included in the consultation services. In these separate capacities; Advisor's associated persons may earn commissions or 12(b)-1 fees when making transactions in securities, load mutual funds, variable life, variable annuity and insurance products. Any transactions made in the client's accounts will be made only at the client's instruction and any commissions earned on securities or load mutual fund transactions will be offset against the on-going consultation fees charged. Client will be responsible for transaction ticket charges (the actual cost of each trade, typically $20 to $35, plus exchange fees). These fees and charges will be noted on the client's statements and confirmations. On-going consultation services are contracted for on a yearly basis and can be renewed for a like period by executing a new client agreement. Advisor and client can terminate these on-going consultation services by providing written notice to the other party, and termination will be effective immediately upon receipt. If terminated within five business days of signing the client agreement, services are terminated with no penalty. After the five business days, the client is responsible for payment of fees for time and effort expended to the date of termination. Advisor will provide to the client a statement showing the time expended to the date of termination, and the statement will be due and payable within two weeks of issuance. D. Code of Ethics Summary	Advisor or its associated persons may buy or sell securities or have an interest or position in a security for their personal account which they also recommend to clients. Advisor is and shall continue to be in compliance with The Insider Trading and Securities Fraud Enforcement Act of 1988. As these situations may represent a potential conflict of interest, it is a policy of Advisor that no associated persons shall prefer his or her own interest to that of the advisory client. No person employed by Advisor may purchase or sell any security prior to a transaction or transactions being implemented for an advisory account. Associated persons shall not buy or sell securities for their personal account(s) where their decision is derived, in whole or in part, by information obtained as a result of his/her employment unless the information is also available to the investing public upon reasonable inquiry. Advisor maintains a list of all securities holdings for itself and all associated persons which are reviewed on a regular basis by a principal of the firm.
Part II, Page 5, Item 10	According to the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, an investment advisor is considered a fiduciary. As a fiduciary, it is an investment advisor's responsibility to provide fair and full disclosure of all material facts. In addition, an investment advisor has a duty of utmost good faith to act solely in the best interest of each of its clients. Advisor and its associated persons have a fiduciary duty to all clients. Advisor has established a Code of Ethics which all associated persons must read. They must then execute an acknowledgment agreeing that they understand and agree to comply with Advisor's Code of Ethics. The fiduciary duty of Advisor and its associated persons to clients is considered the core underlying principle for Advisor's Code of Ethics and represents the expected basis for all associated persons' dealings with clients. Advisor has the responsibility to make sure that the interests of clients are placed ahead of it or its associated persons' own investment interests. All associated persons will conduct business in an honest, ethical and fair manner. All associated persons will comply with all federal and state securities laws at all times. Full disclosure of all material facts and potential conflicts of interest will be provided to clients prior to services being conducted. All associated persons have a responsibility to avoid circumstances that might negatively affect or appear to affect the associated persons' duty of complete loyalty to their clients. This section is only intended to provide current clients and potential clients with a description of Advisor's Code of Ethics. If current clients or potential clients wish to review Advisor's Code of Ethics in its entirety, a copy may be requested from any of Advisor's associated persons and a copy will be provided promptly. CONDITIONS FOR MANAGING ACCOUNTS

Item of Form (identify)	Answer
Part II, Page 5, Item 11.A.	Advisor requires a minimum investment amount of $25,000 for RJL Adviser-Directed and RJL Adviser-Managed accounts, $50,000 for RJL Core/Alpha ETF Strategies accounts, and $100,000 for RJL Risk Managed Strategies accounts. The minimum account size for an RJL Wealth Management program account is $100,000. The minimum investment required in the SEI Program is $100,000. The minimum investment required for Genworth Financial Wealth Management accounts is generally $50,000 and $100,000 for ETF and Private Managed Accounts. Exceptions may be granted to the minimums at the discretion of Advisor and the program sponsor when applicable.
	REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS Updates and reviews of financial plans are provided on an as-needed basis. Such reviews and updates to a client’s financial planning situation are provided by the client’s investment advisor representative. Account reviews are provided in connection with asset management accounts and money manager programs. For clients participating in these programs, an investment advisor representative will contact clients at least annually for the purpose of reviewing their account and to determine if there have been changes in their financial situation or investment objectives. Any changes are then reported internally, as well as to any appropriate third party such as money managers. The calendar is the main triggering factor, although more frequent reviews may also be triggered by changes in the client’s circumstances, client request, or changes within the market.
Part II, Page 5, Item 11.B.	Accounts managed by third party managers are reviewed by the client’s investment advisor representative when statements are received from those managers, usually quarterly. However, these accounts may also be reviewed monthly if there is account activity. Accounts managed by Advisor are reviewed by the client’s investment advisor representative on a regular basis, but at least quarterly.
Part II, Page 6, Item 12.A.(1) & (2)	Clients will receive statements at least quarterly from the qualified custodian at which their account is maintained.
Part II, Page 6, Item 12.B.	INVESTMENT OR BROKERAGE DISCRETION Upon receiving written authorization from the client, Advisor may provide discretionary investment advisory services for client accounts. Generally speaking, when discretionary authority is granted, Advisor is given the authority to determine the type of securities and the amount of securities that can be bought or sold for the client portfolio without obtaining the client’s consent for each transaction. Written authorization, including limitations thereof, will be provided by the client in the investment advisory agreement. Depending on the program, Advisor may or may not have discretion over a client’s assets. In some programs, Advisor will not have discretion, but a third party investment advisor, such as Advanced Equities Investment Management, Inc., will be provided with discretion. Clients wishing to implement Advisor’s advice are free to select any broker/dealer or investment advisor they wish and are so informed. If clients wish to have Advisor’s associated persons implement the advice in their capacity as registered representative or establish an account through one of the programs described in this brochure, Advisor’s associated persons’ broker/dealer, First Allied Securities, Inc. (“FASI”) may be used. When Advisor is responsible for managing client accounts, Advisor is also responsible for seeking best execution of all client transactions. Best execution does not necessarily mean the lower price, but includes the overall services received from a broker/dealer.

Part II, Page 6, Item 13.A.	Associated persons of Advisor are registered representatives of FASI and are required to use the services of FASI and FASI's approved clearing broker-dealers when acting in their capacity as registered representatives. FASI serves as the introducing broker-dealer. All accounts established through FASI will be cleared and held at Pershing, LLC. FASI has a wide range of approved securities products for which FASI performs due diligence in selecting. Registered Representatives of FASI are required to adhere to these products when implementing securities transactions through FASI. Commissions charged for these products may be higher or lower than commissions clients may be able to obtain if transactions were implemented through another broker/dealer. In addition to compliance support and oversight, FASI also provides the associated persons of Advisor, and therefore the Advisor, with back-office operational, technology, and other administrative support. In addition to the recommendation of FASI, Advisor utilizes the services and therefore may also recommend clients establish an account through the Fidelity Institutional Wealth Management Program. For accounts established through this platform, National Financial Services LLC serves as the broker/dealer and qualified custodian. While there is no direct linkage between the investment advice given to clients and Advisor's participation in the Fidelity program, economic benefits are received by Advisor which would not be received if Advisor did not give investment advice to clients. These benefits include: A dedicated trade desk that services Fidelity participants exclusively; a dedicated service group and an account services manager dedicated to Advisor's accounts; access, for a fee, to a real-time order matching system; ability to "block" clients' trades; electronic download of trades, balances and position information; access, for a fee, to an electronic interface with Fidelity's software; duplicate and batched client statements, confirmations and year-end summaries; the ability to have advisory fees directly debited from client accounts; a quarterly newsletter; access to Fidelity mutual funds; and access to AdvisorChannel.com (internet access to statements, confirmation and transfer of asset status). The benefits received through participation in the Fidelity program do not depend upon the amount of transactions directed to or amount of assets managed through National Financial Services, LLC. ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION Advisor's associated persons sell securities in their separate capacity as registered representatives. Some of the associated persons are also independently licensed insurance agents and sell insurance products. They can earn commissions when selling these products. Some of the advice offered by the associated persons involves investments in mutual fund products. Load and no-load mutual funds may pay annual distribution charges, sometimes referred to as 12(b)-1 fees. The associated persons may receive a portion of these 12(b)-1 fees from some investment companies in their separate capacities as registered representatives. Clients should be aware that these 12(b)-1 fees come from fund assets and, thus, indirectly from client's assets. The receipt of these fees could represent an incentive for registered representatives to recommend funds with 12(b)-1 fees or higher 12(b)-1 fees over funds with no fees or lower fees, therefore creating a potential conflict of interest. From time to time, Advisor may receive expense reimbursement for travel and/or marketing expenses from distributors of investment and/or insurance products. Travel expense reimbursements are typically a result of attendance at due diligence and/or investment training events hosted by product sponsors. Marketing expense reimbursements are typically the result of informal expense sharing arrangements in which product sponsors may underwrite costs incurred for marketing such as advertising, publishing and seminar expenses. The associated persons endeavor at all times to put the interest of the clients first as a part of their fiduciary duty. However, clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation through 12(b)-1 fees, servicing fees, nominal sales awards and/or expense reimbursements creates a conflict of interest that may impact the judgment of the associated persons when making advisory recommendations. Advisor has established relationships with other investment advisors through which Advisor will act as a solicitor referring clients to the other investment advisors management programs. When acting in this solicitor/referral capacity, Advisor will receive a portion of the fee paid to the other investment advisors by the client. PROXY VOTING Advisor and its employees will not vote proxies on a client’s behalf.
